5. DEFINITION OF GROSS SALES: "Gross Sales" shall mean the selling price or total consideration for the sale, whether in cash or on credit, or partly for cash and partly on credit, of goods, wares, food, drinks or other merchandise by the LESSEE, its Consignor, Sub-Lessee or any party in, upon or from the Leased Premises, and the total consideration for the performance of any service or act within the Leased Premises, and the use of any of the facilities thereof, accruing to the LESSEE, its Consignor, Sub-Lessee or any party while remaining or occupying any part of the Leased Premises, regardless of whether such selling price or consideration shall be actually collected or received by the LESSEE, its Consignor or Sub-Lessee. The term shall include cash overages; receipts from gift-wrapping or other services; sale of promotional items; monthly gains from foreign exchange transactions (net of losses to the extent of the gain); deposits not refunded to purchasers; charges for sales on credit; charges for services rendered by other stores or offices of the LESSEE, its Sub-Lessee or Consignor, or for goods, food, wares, drinks, or other merchandise directly or indirectly ordered from or caused by the LESSEE's or Sub-Lessee's or Consignor's establishment in the Leased Premises; online sales or orders received from online platforms which are fulfilled in the Leased Premises whether for delivery or customer pick-up; reimbursements received for damaged goods; local taxes or any other tax and other miscellaneous income. The term shall exclude returns and refunds; recoveries from bad debts on which rent had previously been paid; sales discounts (provided these are separately recorded in the sales invoices and books of accounts); the amount of the value-added tax, sales tax or other similar taxes imposed by the national government as determined under applicable law, when these are recorded separately in the books of accounts of the LESSEE, its Sub-Lessee or Consignor and/or separately billed to their respective customers; service charges actually distributed; and the proceeds from the sale of the LESSEE's, its Sub-Lessee's or Consignor's used fixtures and office equipment which do not form part of their respective inventory and stock-in-trade. There shall be no adjustment of Gross Sales to take into account cash shortages and losses arising from foreign exchange transaction in excess of gain.
